

Items for the Daily Log - 7 February 1953

1. I informed General Smith of certain personal comments which had been passed on to me by Congressman McCormack. In addition, General Smith stated to me that in his opinion the release of my memoranda on the Davies Case to the Internal Security Subcommittee of the Senate Judiciary Committee had proven "a blessing in disguise" in attempting to clarify the entire Davies issue in so far as it involved CIA.

25X1A

State Dept. review completed